

SAIR Best Electronic Fact Book

Institution:

Link:

Rating scale: Poor (1) - Excellent (6)

General description: An easily navigated impressive display of institutional facts covering a wide variety of areas for the purpose of one-stop shopping for information about the institution. Users should have the ability to view and print pages with ease using a variety of web browsers. The intended audience is everyone (institutional faculty and staff, parents and students, other institutions, and the general public).

Judges please rate each category as a whole, rather than each individual question/item within the category.		Rating (1 - 6)
Functionality: Is the electronic fact book easily accessible? Does it appeal to a universal audience? Does it download quickly and completely? Does the navigation work fully and easily? Is there a "search" feature? Are dead links a problem?
Design: Does the electronic fact book provide data/information in a new or novel way? Are data shown in a creative way? Is the artistry (i.e.. Typography, font styles, visual elements) exceptional? Is the general layout/use of space clean and pleasing to the eye?
Content: Is the mission of the electronic fact book accomplished? Is the information process easy to follow (i.e.. Perceptual clarity, focus of attention, visibility of functions)? Is attention to detail obvious (absence of mistakes, dead ends, and outdated pages)?
Data quality and approach: Are the data in the electronic fact book useful? Would you, as a potential user, be able to use the site to draw conclusions about the institution? Does the electronic fact book utilize data of sufficient quality to answer the questions asked?
Originality and Creativity: Is the effective use of leading edge technologies - Java, DHTML, active X, advanced coding, XML, CSS, etc. obvious? Does the electronic fact book show complete database integration and functionality? Is the electronic fact book distinctive? Does it resonate in your memory?
Overall Quality: An assessment of the electronic fact book taken on the whole (not necessarily an average of the ratings).
Comments:
Reviewer Ranking: Rank this electronic fact book as it relates to the other submissions with 1 being the best.		