General Information

Spelman College, founded in 1881 as the Atlanta Baptist Female Seminary, is a global leader in the education of women of African descent. Spelman College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC). Spelman College empowers women to engage the many cultures of the world and inspires a commitment to positive social change through service. We are dedicated to academic excellence in the liberal arts and sciences and the intellectual, creative, ethical and leadership development of our students. Spelman College is located in the historic West End community, one of the National Register of Historic Places.” Spelman is a proud member of the Atlanta University Center Consortium (AUCC). The AUCC operates to advance the mission and strategic goals of Spelman College, Clark Atlanta University, Morehouse College, and Morehouse School of Medicine by providing a structure that allows students to cross-register at the other institutions to attain a broader collegiate experience.

Mission Statement

Spelman College, a historically Black college and a global leader in the education of women of African descent, is dedicated to academic excellence in the liberal arts and sciences and the intellectual, creative, ethical, and leadership development of its students. Through diverse learning modalities, Spelman empowers the whole person to engage the many cultures of the world and inspires a commitment to positive social change.

Accreditation

Spelman College is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award baccalaureate degrees. Contact the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges at 1866 Southern Lane, Decatur, Georgia 30033-4097 or call 404-679-4500 for questions about the accreditation of Spelman College.

Legacy of Excellence

Spelman College produces extraordinary outcomes for students. Our current graduation rate of 75 percent (6-year average) is the highest among all HBCU’s and is significantly higher than the national graduation rate (58 percent).

Academic Rigor

Spelman College has several interdisciplinary centers that support the institution’s mission of academic excellence. Our Interdisciplinary Centers of Excellence serve as a vital anchor in strategically coordinating the work of our faculty, students and staff. Our signature academic programs and resources include the Center of Excellence for Minority Women in STEM, Gordon-Zeto Center for Global Education, Center for Leadership and Civic Engagement, Teaching Resource and Research, Women in Spiritual Discernment of Ministry (WISDOM) and Women’s Research and Resource Center.

The Fact Book is compiled, edited and published by Institutional Research (IR), a unit of Academic Affairs. IR provides official institutional data, analyses and research to support a data-informed, decision-making culture in support of the College's mission.

Institutional Research Functions

- ❖ Provides data for the institution's accountability and compliance with accrediting agencies and government entities.
- ❖ Collects, analyzes and provides campus administrators with appropriate data and information.
- ❖ Coordinate's planning, budgeting, evaluation and course evaluation processes.
- ❖ Responds to data requests and surveys from internal and external constituencies.
